

District Award of Merit

The District Award of Merit is a council award that is presented by the Apollo district. The award is available to any Scouters who have rendered service of an outstanding nature at the district level. It is not appropriate to nominate a Scouter who has already received this award. A professional Scouter or other council employees may not receive this award based on employment service. However, a professional Scouter or employee who also serves as a volunteer Scouter may be eligible, based on volunteer service. (1 award per every 25 units or fraction thereof)

Apollo Award

The Apollo Award is for adult Scouters who are always called upon for service when the situation arises. These are Scouters that are never afraid to take on any task asked of them and do not ask for any recognition. Candidates for the Apollo Award may be nominated by anyone in the district. All registered adult Scouters in the Apollo district are eligible (1 award per every district award of merit awarded.)

WL Davis Leadership Award

Named in honor of William Leonard Davis who, as an educator and civic leader, gave unselfishly of himself to ensure equality in the BSA through ensuring all youth could enjoy the benefits of the Scouting Program. The award is presented to a Scout, Scouter, Civic/Community Leader, or Organization that demonstrated outstanding leadership in promoting the aims of Scouting for youth within the Apollo District service area.

Any Scout, Scouter, Civic / Community Leader, or Organization may be nominated. The nominee should have demonstrated leadership in promoting the education, citizenship, fitness, leadership, and character development of youth. The Community Service is not limited to the Scouting program but must impact Scouts in the Apollo District. NOTE: A unit key three (unit leader, chairperson, charter organization representative) or district key three (district chairman, district commissioner, district executive) must endorse the nomination. (1 award per year)

Charter Organization of the Year

The Charter Organization of the Year Award is presented to a community-based organization in the Apollo district. The organization should demonstrate an outstanding relationship with its chartered unit(s), the district, and the community beyond normal expectation. Candidates for the Charter Organization of the Year Award must charter a unit(s) within the Apollo district boundaries. (1 award per year)

Family of the Year

The Family of the Year Award is presented to a family who has, as a group, provided outstanding support to the scouting program in our district. Those families that make Scouting a "family commitment" deserve to be recognized. Candidates for the Family of the Year Award must have at least one BSA registered Scout and Scouter. All such families in the Apollo District are eligible and may be nominated by any registered adult Scouter in the Apollo District. (1 award per year)

Eagle Project of the Year

The Eagle Scout Project of the Year Award is presented for the Eagle Scout project, completed in the last calendar year, that is deemed to be the most outstanding of those nominated, based on the need for the service, the leadership provided, the benefit to the recipient, the scope of the project, and lasting impact. Projects considered for the Eagle Scout Project of the Year Award will have met the Eagle project criteria as specified by BSA and may be nominated for recognition by any unit registered adult leader. All projects performed during the recognition year by registered Scouts in the

Apollo district are eligible for consideration. furthermore, once a project has been selected for the district award, the District Chair (or designee) will submit the award to council for consideration on Council Eagle Project of the year. (1 award per year)

Unit Service Award

The Unit Service award is presented to one (1) or more Scouters in each unit to recognize noteworthy contributions to the unit programs by Scouters. Units may select one (1) candidate for every ten (10) registered youth (or fraction thereof.) Candidates for the Unit Service Award are to be nominated by their unit committee. All registered adult Scouter's in the Apollo district are eligible.

Honor Unit

The Honor Unit award recognizes units that have successfully completed the requirements for Journey to Excellence, participated in council fundraising (FOS, Popcorn, etc.), and participated in Apollo district events, and projects. These units willingly serve their community and stand as a shining example of what the BSA program has to offer. Candidates for the Honor Unit Award will have met the JTE criteria as specified by BSA and worked with district commissioner staff to have completed five simple and one detailed unit assessments in the calendar year. The unit may be nominated for this recognition by any unit registered adult leader. All chartered units in the Apollo district are eligible.
